

Canadian International
Trade Tribunal

Tribunal canadien du commerce extérieur

CANADIAN INTERNATIONAL
TRADE TRIBUNAL

Dumping and Subsidizing

ORDER

Expiry review RR-2023-001

Dry Wheat Pasta

*Order and reasons issued
Wednesday, March 20, 2024*

IN THE MATTER OF an expiry review, pursuant to subsection 76.03(1) of the Special Import Measures Act, of the finding made by the Canadian International Trade Tribunal on July 26, 2018, in inquiry NQ-2017-005, concerning:

DRY WHEAT PASTA ORIGINATING IN OR EXPORTED FROM THE REPUBLIC OF TÜRKIYE

ORDER

The Canadian International Trade Tribunal, pursuant to subsection 76.03(1) of the Special Import Measures Act (SIMA), has conducted an expiry review of its finding made on July 26, 2018, in inquiry NQ-2017-005, concerning the dumping and subsidizing of all dry wheat-based pasta, not stuffed or otherwise prepared, and not containing more than two percent eggs, whether or not enriched, fortified, organic, whole wheat or containing milk or other ingredients, originating in or exported from the Republic of Türkiye, excluding refrigerated, frozen or canned pasta.

Pursuant to paragraph 76.03(12)(b) of SIMA, the Tribunal continues its finding in respect of the aforementioned goods.

Randolph W. Heggart

Randolph W. Heggart
Presiding Member

Serge Fréchette

Serge Fréchette
Member

Frédéric Seppey

Frédéric Seppey
Member

The statement of reasons will be posted on the website at a later date.