ORDER

WHEREAS Stor-it Systems Ltd. (Stor-it) filed the above-mentioned complaint on June 22 and June 26, 2023, in relation to a request for proposal issued by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) for the supply and installation of U-shaped workbenches with cabinets and drawers;

AND WHEREAS in its complaint, Stor-it alleged that the RCMP wrongly determined that its bid did not comply with all the mandatory requirements of the solicitation and disputed the extension of the contract delivery date for the winning bidder;

AND WHEREAS the Canadian International Trade Tribunal decided, on June 28, 2023, pursuant to subsection 30.13(1) of the Canadian International Trade Tribunal Act (CITT Act) and subsection 7(1) of the Canadian International Trade Tribunal Procurement Inquiry Regulations, to inquire into one of the grounds of complaint, i.e., Stor-it's allegation that the RCMP wrongly determined that its bid did not comply with all the mandatory requirements of the solicitation;

AND WHEREAS, on August 15, 2023, the RCMP notified the Tribunal that the matter was resolved between the parties and that the complaint was accordingly withdrawn on the consent of both parties;
